MASTER'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

INTRODUCTION

This year has provided the celebration of 50 years of continuous service to over 35 Subordinate and Pomona Granges. At several of these occasions, I took the liberty of reading excerpts from the Master's Annual Address in the 1932 Journal of Proceedings, to see what it was like 50 years ago and noting the problems and concerns which parallel those of today.

The 60th Annual California State Grange Session, held in Fresno, California, heard in the Introduction of Brother George Sehlmeier's third Annual Master's Address the following:

"Surrounding this city are beautiful vineyards and orchards, and some of the most productive areas in the State, but notwithstanding that these favorable conditions prevail, there is evidence here, as elsewhere in the State and country, that agriculture is suffering from a very unfavorable economic condition.

"I feel it is our duty to offer a constructive plan for the solution of the problems facing this State. I trust the program adopted at this Convention will be at once definite, constructive, and progressive. It is evident that the farmers of California, and not the farmers only but many of our public officers, are looking to this Convention to offer a program for agriculture that, when put into effect, will bring some relief. This great opportunity presents itself to this delegate body."

Today marks the day of 110 California State Grange Annual Sessions and the third time Kern County has been host. To Deputy State Master Paul Rupp, Pomona Grange Master William Hershey, and to all Grange leaders and members in Kern County, we offer a very sincere "thank you."

Kern County is recognized as the third highest agricultural producing county in our state and nation. Several commodities are produced here, namely cotton, dairy products, forage, field and nut crops, all assisting the production of food and fiber in the Agriculture Community. Today our nation's 2.6 million farmers each provide enough food and fiber for 52 people in the United States and 26 people abroad. That represents twice the production of agriculture than in 1932, on essentially the same resource base.

Although Kern County has a berth in the world of commerce for the production of "Black Gold" or "Texas Tea" (crude oil), it also assists in the total picture of this nation's agricultural trade balance that allows more employment in agriculture than any other industry. More than the steel, industrial, automobile and high-technology industries combined.

As your 25th presiding officer of the California State Grange, the second largest farm organization in 42 states across the nation, the longest lived farm organization in the world and the only family fraternal farm organization in the United States, it gives me great pleasure to recognize Kern County Agriculture.

The next few days will require a process of developing policy that is unique only to the Order of Patrons of Husbandry. The resolution of ideas and needs of our grassroots membership that have a statewide scope will be deliberated on, studied, researched and recommended by committee action to the Delegation of the California State Grange for ratification or rejection. Those ratified of national scope will be entered into the same process at the 116th Annual Session of the National Grange next month in Providence, Rhode Island.

As the legislators of our Order, I am asking you to acknowledge our daily charge as set forth in the Opening Ceremonies of the California State Grange, concluding with the motto, "In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, liberty; in all things, charity."

AGRICULTURE

STATE OF THE INDUSTRY

The agricultural producers of California are experiencing great difficulty in operating a successful farming venture. Net farm income for this year, while slightly higher than last year, will still remain 24 percent below the returns for 1980. When this year's farm income is adjusted for inflation, it becomes one of the lowest since records have been kept.

Depressed commodity prices and slack economic activity world-wide have only enabled farm income to increase 24 percent over the last five years. However, increased production costs of 31 percent over the same period have left net farm income floundering at a negative 13 percent.

The increase in production costs is largely attributable to high interest rates and an increased debt burden carried by farmers. Today America's farmers carry nearly $200 billion of debt, more than double the debt carried in 1975.

Agricultural land prices have held nearly constant for the United States as a whole, but the regional differences are quite dramatic. In the Midwest, decreasing land values have severely cut into farmers equity upon which credit is determined. In many cases, land values have dropped below that level required as collateral and the results are foreclosure.

Land values in California have managed to keep pace with inflation and stabilize land prices for the United States as a whole.

The real disheartening part of this picture is the fact that a return on an agricultural investment is vested in the increased appreciated value of the farm. In a slack economy with depressed values, a return on investment in agriculture cannot be realized.

CROP PROTECTION CHEMICALS

The battle continues over the appropriate use of farm chemicals. The task before the Grange is to help the public understand the situation through an increased knowledge of the risks and benefits of proper crop protection chemical usage.

We cannot take the risk out of living. We accept risks everyday as we assess the risk of our activities. This is a judgment call based on current reliable information. Most of us feel driving a car is important enough to make the risks acceptable. However, the less information we have in a particular area, the more likely we are to misjudge a situation. For example, in ranking of thirty sources of risks according to their actual contribution to the number of deaths in the United States, pesticides rank 28th. However, in perception, business persons ranked pesticides 15th, the League of Women Voters ranked pesticides 9th, and college students ranked pesticides 4th, ahead of autos and alcohol.

This poses special problems for the agricultural chemical industry and the farmers who depend on the pesticides they produce. The general public has little or no knowledge of testing procedures, safety levels, or their own economic interest in the appropriate use of pesticides.

The Grange is attempting to bridge this gap by becoming an active member of the Alliance for Food and Fiber. The Alliance is a group of producer organizations dedicated to seeking the public acceptance of the safe and necessary use of crop protection chemicals.

CONSERVATION

WATER

The defeat of SB 200, Proposition 9, on the June ballot was decisive and put California on record as being opposed to the Peripheral Canal and other water projects. However, the vote does nothing to solve our future water problems. Water conservation alone cannot produce the additional yield necessary to meet the demand by the year 2000. It has also taken an average of twenty years from authorization of a project to final completion. The Grange must continue its 110 year history to speak out in favor of water development projects for which it has policy. Our water needs can be recognized and met. The solutions will not, however, be inexpensive or easy.

Groups against development are not bashful about getting their views before the public. Take, for example, Proposition 13, the Water Resources Initiative, which qualified for the November 1982 Ballot.

The new Proposition 13 is a far-reaching attempt to totally change water usage in California. First, it would prohibit water suppliers, engaged in the interbasin export of over 20,000 acre-feet of water annually, from increasing imports until they have submitted a water conservation plan to the State Water Resources Control Board (SWRCB), the Board has approved the plan, and the plan is satisfactorily being implemented. Second, it would permit any person to appropriate water for instream use. Third, it prohibits the filling of the recently constructed New Melones Dam on the Stanislaus River. Fourth, it mandates groundwater management in eleven groundwater basins in California. Fifth, it states as policy that conservation and the efficient use of water shall be "vigorously pursued"; that this Act is to be "liberally construed"; and furthermore, that the Legislature may not amend this Initiative except to "further its purpose".

This ballot initiative is undoubtedly one of the most smoothly worded "wolf in a sheepskin" ballot measures I have seen. The Grange opposes Proposition 13 and urges its membership to vote NO on the Water Resources Initiative on November 2.

PUBLIC UTILITIES

The people of California have good reason to be concerned over the increases in utility rates.

Consumers of natural gas in California are slated for a $264 million increase in rates. This could mean an average monthly increase of $25 to ratepayers heating bills. Rate hikes are occurring despite the fact that demand for natural gas has slumped due to the recession, and there is such an oversupply that thousands of wells are shut.

Pipeline firms, which transport gas from producing states to local natural gas distribution companies, have little incentive to shop for the lowest prices since the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission allows them to automatically pass on to consumers the costs of their gas purchases. The process by which this is done is known as the purchased gas adjustment, which most pipeline companies file with the Public Utilities Commission every six months. In it, they project what the increased cost of gas will be for the next six months. These increases go into effect automatically unless they are challenged.

Pacific Telephone is applying for $993 million in additional rates in 1983 to meet service demands and achieve financial viability. Last year, Pacific Telephone received a $610 million rate increase. Pacific Telephone has historically subsidized its monthly residence service charge through long-distance billings. Now, with competition in the long-distance market, Pacific Telephone must lower its long-distance rates and double the basic service charge.

Electrical energy costs which skyrocketed last year with a $900 million rate increase are expected to increase as much as 20 percent per year or double in the next ten years.

The nature of a monopoly produces greater costs for the product and less services. This is exactly what we are experiencing. While the Public Utilities Commission is mandated to protect the public interest, it appears to be more concerned with rates of return.

GENERAL WELFARE

CRIME

For the first time in four years, the crime rate has leveled off. Whatever we are doing must be right. The fact is, we are experiencing a five percent increase in arrests, a higher conviction rate and we are sending more persons to prison.

The question, then, becomes: How much crime are we going to tolerate and what are we willing to do about it?

Current law, attempt to protect the law-abiding citizens while using legal resources to protect the accused. The law is a failure to the extent that an honest person is relegated to the role of victim and then must pay the large cost of crime to our society. The criminal, on the other hand, uses the legal system to his advantage in the sense that plea-bargaining, probation, and case dismissals are now a way of life.

Last year the United States experienced 13.2 million serious crimes. Grange members throughout this nation have consistently demanded a tougher approach to crime. Grange members in California promoted, circulated and voted into law the Victim's Bill of Rights Initiative, Proposition 8, on the June ballot. Opponents to strict laws attempted to have the initiative disqualified because it dealt with more than one subject. Opponents argued for a dual system; a strict 'one subject' interpretation for initiatives and a more lenient one for legislation. The California Supreme Court eventually agreed that there was no place for a dual system and the Victim's Bill of Rights is now on the books.

Let's pray that the judicial system in California can implement the will of the people in an efficient manner. We will accept the short term back-up in our courts as plea-bargaining is reduced and more cases go to court, so stricter enforcement can be attained. We must be willing to support the effort by providing more resources for judges, prisons, parole officers and the police. Overall, the price of law enforcement will not rise as the cost of crime is diminished and law-abiding citizens are able to walk the streets without fear.

TRADE

International trade plays a key role in the survival and success of today's farmer. California accounts for a high percentage of agricultural exports sent abroad by the United States. There is a great need to establish a consistent policy regarding trade being conducted on a reciprocal and mutually-beneficial basis.

A long-term agreement is badly needed if domestic agriculture is to work out of our present surplus situation. At present, there are two main stumbling blocks to attaining a consistent long-term agreement. The first is the use of embargoes as a political or economic weapon. During the 60's, history was made as trade was expanded and set asides and subsidies were decreased. Trade opened up with third world countries, the U.S.S.R. and China. Then imposition of the grain embargo weakened our reliability and the U.S.S.R. will be reluctant to strike a future long-term agreement.

The second stumbling block deals with competing countries subsidizing their agricultural products which undercut the price of our products on the world market. The United States entered the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) which specifies that a subsidy should not unfairly affect competition on the world market. The U. S. has seven cases pending before the GATT. It is a slow process at best and we have yet to win a case.

Currently, the California raisin industry is being seriously threatened by the destructive subsidy program of the European Common Market. The European Economic Community (EEC) is engaging in unfair trade practices in production subsidies for Greek raisins. This action has dropped worldwide raisin prices below the U.S. cost of production. Greek farmers receive the same or a greater price per ton for raisins than U. S. farmers do. However, because of the EEC subsidy, Greek raisins are sold at 60 percent below their cost.

It is essential that we work within the format of GATT to strengthen the position of U. S. farmers in seeking relief from unfair trade practices of competing countries and allow increased accessibility to GATT rules and disciplines for dispute settlements that are so necessary for the expansion of U. S. agriculture exports.

Unjust embargoes and trade barriers can only cause more international antagonism and retaliatory trade practices.

SECTION B

MASTER'S ANNUAL ADDRESS

INTRODUCTION

I sincerely hope you will view this report in a most constructive manner as I am attempting to "tell it like it is".

Any recommendations or direction for the future of this fabulous organization must come from you. This is your organization. I can be viewed upon as your office manager or executive director for which purpose I am altering this part of my Annual Address.

The first part of this section, Part I, is entitled "Condition of the Order" for which purpose I will say it like it is.

The second part of this section, Part II, is entitled "Good of the Order" and will include my concerns as your corporate leader and provide recommendations and alternatives for the Good of the Order Committee to deliberate upon as well as asking for their recommendations for your adoption or rejection. Also included in Part II is the proposed budget for 1982-1983.

CONDITION OF THE ORDER

PART I

We imposed a budgetary constraint at the first of the year after having a two week notice that the second and third class postage would increase 30 percent, which was not budgeted for. We then called a meeting together consisting of your State Officers and Directors for the sake of getting our act together. The results of that planning meeting were positive and effective and will be continued. Many of the results are listed as follows:

All publications and mailings from your State Grange Officers and Directors are to be handled in the State Grange headquarters by our professional staff. We are making use of bulk rate permits, piggy-back mailings as often as possible, the Sprint telephone system allowing discount long-distance calls, a 50 percent reduction in legislative newsletters (alternating each month through the Grange News), Lecturer's Bulletins mailed every six months instead of quarterly and a calculator put to everything else.

Roster — We then looked at our Roster. The cost of printing our 1981 Roster for the California State Grange was $3,824.68 for 1,465 copies. (Three more sheets of paper and it would have to be bound instead of stapled.)

This year, thanks to the Grange News, we paid $2,149.00 for 2,000 copies. Although the Rosters were only mailed to key leaders for postal reasons, our next Roster printing is to be $500.00 less or approximately $1,600 for 2,000 copies. We can add 8 pages before the cost will be affected.

Journal of Proceedings — Five Hundred Twenty-five (525) copies of our 1980 Journal of Proceedings were printed at a cost of $3,862.64 for 216 pages. This year the 1981 Journal of Proceedings (550) copies was printed at the same place for $4,602.52 and 219 pages. This equates to $21.02 per sheet of paper.

Consideration should be given to our Journal of Proceed- ings as to what we want to include, need to include or must include. We should look at our documentation procedures and evaluate the importance and cost factors.

Legislative Department — As Brother Welty, Legislative Director for the California State Grange, has done an admirable job on a consultant basis, he could use some assistance. We spend a dollar per member to establish State Grange policy and fifty cents to carry it out. How effective are we?

The Publicity Builders Committee is a strong asset to the Legislative Department which has allowed a structure to reach news editors on a monthly basis with press releases as well as extending our influence as an organization through a donation process, and offering helpful assistance to Pomona and Subordinate Granges. Their reports will be presented later in the agenda.

Membership — We hope you have noticed we did not appoint a membership "Director" this year. Randy Lewis is our "Membership Coordinator". Your local membership committees are to coordinate ideas and programs (in conjunction with your Worthy Master and Worthy Lecturer) to stimulate your existing members and permit new members to join.

The National Grange has a new membership builder program under the direction of Harry Massey, Membership Director for the National Grange, which will be operational soon. It will require some training and the appointment of a membership chairperson in your Grange will be vital.

We intend to keep our "Welcome to the Grange" program which is very simple to use and a warm, constructive approach asking your friends and neighbors to join.

In addition to these programs, there is yet another. Brother Randy Lewis, California State Grange Membership Coordinator, will give a detailed presentation during his report. I can offer this overview. After a new member is initiated and signs the roll book, you can send us the application. That new member will then receive the next edition of the Grange News (with their name in it), a welcome letter from the State Master and any other constructive information we can provide.

That application will then go into a drawing, beginning October 25, 1982, and the first name that appears on the "Recommended by" or the first sponsoring name will be eligible for one seat on a major tour, effective January 1, 1983, which will be given away each quarter. If the winner does not wish to go on the tour, then he or she can have a $250.00 cash award. The Grange with the highest net gain and the highest percentage gain will each receive a $500.00 check for beautification of their Grange Hall, or if renting, it can be applied as scholarships in the name of their Grange.

All employees of the State Grange and its affiliates will be exempt from this contest, although there may be incentive awards offered to them as soon as we locate a sponsor.

Grange Benefits and Services (Affiliates)—All of our Grange affiliates are to be commended. These are companies and organizations who are suffering the same economic pressures we are. We will continue to be by their side, offering constructive suggestions and guidance when and where possible. Their success is us.....PARTICIPATION.

Committees — Committees on all Grange levels are vital to the success of this organization. Their effectiveness is judged largely by participation and accomplishments.

I am altering some of our State Grange Committees and Director responsibilities to include more representation and effectiveness. The Junior, Youth, Publicity Builders and Deaf Awareness Committees will be advisory committees with the chairperson acting as the Director. Each committee member will have a selected responsibility throughout the year in addition to committee decisions. One member will annually rotate off the committee and a new member will be added. When the chairperson or acting Director rotates off, they cannot be re-appointed to the same committee for at least one year. This will allow more people to do smaller parts and allow for "on the job training" and confidence for the chairperson or acting Director.

Finance — For the purpose of educating ourselves, I am including in this report a list of definitions which will allow this financial portion to be more easily understood.

- A. General Fund—check writing account (no interest)
- B. Revolving Fund—earmarked funds (Junior, Youth, CWA, etc.), short term (interest bearing)
- C. Budget—Estimate of income and expenses (a guide)
- D. C.P.A.—Certified Public Accountant
- E. Financial Statement — Results of Business Accounting Procedure required by State and Federal Law, also for tax purposes.
- F. Audit — testing and verification of business accounts and practices assuring that they are true and accurate. Usually performed by a C.P.A.
 - a.) Unqualified Audit—good, not limited or modified.
 - b.) Qualified Audit—Acceptable, but not all inclusive, could be a departure from accepted accounting procedures.
 - c.) Adverse — something really wrong.
 - d.) Disclaimer of Opinion — Auditor withholds opinion or any form of assurance.
- G. Fixed or Restricted Assets—trust account or time certificate (account cannot be touched). only interest can be used as specified. (Example, Doris Deaver Memorial or Workers' Compensation.)
- H. Liquid or Unrestricted Assets — a reserve account or contingency fund. Total account can be used for emergency or need by vote of the State Executive Committee.

- I. Passbook Account — Interest accrued on any or all "assets" are rolled-over into a passbook. Can be used for specified purposes or re-invested.)

Our past fiscal year (ending June 30, 1982) and currently, appear to have all the basic problems of the family farm and small business. As our proposed budget expenses last year came within three-fourths of one percent of target, we were crippled by the loss of projected income. The major factors contributing to less income were cookbook sales ($15,239.30), tour commissions ($6,468.89), and a staggering membership loss of 1,718 @ $3.50 per member = $6,013.00). These factors alone total $27,721.19.

At the first of the year, we found ourselves facing a minus $16,000 cash flow, a bank loan of $10,000 needed to cash checks at last year's convention, postal increase not budgeted for of $500.00 per month and one quarter payment behind in National Grange per capita dues of $23,500.00 (which is still due) totaling to $52,500.00. This $52,500.00 added to the above loss of $27,721.19 amounts to $80,221.19. END OF BUDGET TALK.

THIS IS OUR PROBLEM. We miraculously closed our fiscal year, ending June 30, 1982, with a $38,000.00 deficit (National Per Capita included) and $1,400 cash flow. Our C.P.A. says we will owe no taxes.

If you take that minus $38,000.00 and divide by 12 months ($38,00.00 divided by 12 = $3,200.00) or a minus $3,200.00 per month we are operating on. Regardless of what we do at this session, it will not be received until the end of March, 1983. From June 1982 to March 1983 is nine months at minus $3,200.00 per month equals $28,800.00 added to a bank loan of $15,000.00 to cover this session added to the $38,000.00 deficit gives us a projected loss of minus $81,800.00 in March 1983.

I really think where we got off the track was in last year's annual report. It was reported that on June 30, 1981, there was $80,747.00 in liquid assets and in invested certificates. Even the C.P.A. concurred and rightly so. What wasn't explained was that $43,612.00 was in fixed (restricted) assets (Doris Deaver Memorial and Workers' Compensation Dividend) leaving only $37,135.00 in liquid (unrestricted) assets of which $20,000 of that was used to pay the $10,000 bank loan and $10,000 to pay bills.

To give you an idea of how nice it sounds, this year we closed our books with $98,288.00 in liquid assets and in invested certificates. The real problem is of that $98,288.00, only $13,428 are liquid assets. The remaining $84,860.00 are fixed assets and cannot be touched, except to borrow against.

The $13,428.00 plus an additional $1,572.00 (total of $15,000.00) are invested in this session which is projected to cost $44,000.00.

Our basic problem is our fixed income. Unlike Social Security or unemployment benefits, we receive no inflationary or consumer price index adjustments. Since our last per capita dues increase in 1979 from $4.50 to $6.50 per member, we have seen an accumulated inflation factor spiral $2.08 per member, a 60 cent National Dues raise and fixed costs for the Convention and Legislative Department rise 50 cents. All totaled is $3.18 per member or $1.18 below the $4.50 per capita figure in 1978.

GOOD OF THE ORDER

PART II

This part of the Master's Annual Address is requested to be sent to the Good of the Order Committee at the 1982 Annual Session for consideration. The Committee recommendation, when acted upon by the Delegate Body, will be final.

A. LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

Allow the California State Grange Executive Committee to make recommendations to the 1983 Annual Session for a "Legislative Intern" program similar to other organizations. An Intern System utilizing Grange members (for education and experience) could provide additional legislative work, take note of meetings and hearings and give our Legislative Department and the organization avenues of effectiveness that have never been tapped.

B. JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS

Eliminate or modify duplication recorded in the Journal of Proceedings:

1. Copies of State Executive Committee Minutes in Delegate packets.
2. Deputy State Master and Officers' reports, except: State Master, Secretary, Treasurer, Executive Committee Minutes, Directors' reports, C.P.A. Financial Statement, Budget and business, corporate or historical information.
3. Listings of warrants (checks) written.

A photocopy of any of the above information could be mailed to any interested member at 5 cents a copy plus postage.

C. FINANCE

Provide suggestions for a flexible standard for Per Capita Dues. based on inflation and/or membership.

1. inflation (increase/decrease)
2. membership (increase/decrease)
3. Grange News subsidy

D. AUDIT AND BUDGET COMMITTEE

The first week in September 1982, we called in Brothers Piper (North), Espinola (Central), and Lewis (South) to review the financial statement, accounting methods and to finalize a proposed budget. They are also members of the Good of the Order Committee with the intent of providing a resource regarding our financial status and assisting in the recommendation process. If there is any objection to this, please let it be known.

Our proposed budget is not balanced as we are trying to give you the truest picture possible.

I am recommending that Part II of this report and the proposed budget be submitted to the Good of the Order Committee and that your decisions be based on their recommendations.

E. PROPOSED BUDGET

(Budget attached — Financial Statement)

CONCLUSION

This organization may increase and it may decrease, but it will never go away. The policy you adopt, the decisions you make at this Session (and the way they got here) are unique only to the Grange—The Order of Patrons of Husbandry. This is your organization, owned and operated by you and the grassroots membership you represent.

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to serve.

Fraternally submitted,
David Austin, Master
California State Grange

SECRETARY'S ANNUAL REPORT

Worthy Master, State Officers and Members of the California State Grange:

It is a pleasure and honor to greet you at this 110th Annual Session of the California State Grange.

My sincere appreciation goes out to all the Secretaries for their wonderful cooperation and assistance with the State Secretary's office. It is my extreme pleasure to serve them all.

Would also like to thank the General Convention Chairman, Paul Rupp and all the committees who worked so hard to make this convention so successful and to all of those patrons behind the scenes who were of great assistance to the Committee Chairman.

My sincere thanks also to the Staff at State Grange Headquarters for their assistance in serving the Granges through-out the state.

MEMBERSHIP

At the end of the June 30, 1982 quarter, membership reported to the National Grange was 45,139 members with 310 Subordinate Granges reporting. This was a loss of 1,103 members for the quarter.

For the Grange Year — June 1981 to June 1982 there was a loss of 1,718 members. Most of these losses were by Suspension for non-payment of dues and by Withdrawal.

This is a clear indication of the need for an increase in membership effort if the Grange is going to be a force in molding worthwhile legislation. With renewed interest and leadership, the Grange will grow with the cooperation and talents of everyone. Through Membership development we are given the opportunity to work together and share our talents and this is all for the future of the Grange.

Motion seconded and carried.

SB 200 POLICY POSITION—JOHN WELTY:

The Committee was asked to clarify the Grange's position on SB 200 as adopted by delegates in Resolution C-7, Visalia. Proponents claimed that a delegate vote against SB 200 was the same as a vote against the Peripheral Canal. Since the Peripheral Canal was not mentioned in C-7, the Committee decided that the sole intent of C-7 is to encourage members of the Grange to vote against SB 200. In a letter dated November 23, 1981 the Executive Committee delineated a full explanation of its actions as it pertains to C-7, Visalia.

This will be reviewed at future Executive meetings. It was voted to keep the C.W.A. operating fund at the State Grange office

COOKBOOKS:

Master Austin reported that our existing contract with Majestic Publishing Company has been amended, reducing our previously agreed upon total payment by 30% to $14,000. The new agreement will provide for delivery of all cookbooks, with half the balance paid now and the balance paid upon final delivery of the cookbooks as meets the satisfaction of the California State Grange. The Executive Committee voted to support the recommendations sent by the Master of the California State Grange to the National Grange on January 20, 1982 which are in keeping with the intent of resolutions passed by delegate action. The recommendations to be applied as reform measures to the 1902 Reclamation Act were as follows:

- A. 320 acres per individual owned or leased up to 960 acres total per family unit. (Most farm operations (97%) in federal irrigation projects are smaller than 960 acres and would not be affected by operation limits in this range.)
- B. Residency requirement within 50 miles of the farm except for widowed spouse, retired farmers, hardship conditions and land changing ownership through inheritance. (Residency requirement of reclamation law is valid and applicable.)
- C. Support an equivalency clause based on soil fertility and normal weather conditions.
- D. The California State Grange feels a full-cost provision undermines the intent of the Reclamation Act to provide opportunity for a maximum number of farmers on the land and for individuals to get a start in farming.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS JUNE 30, 1982

NOTE 1—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The California State Grange was incorporated October 7, 1946, under the laws of the State of California.

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies:

- (a) Assets, liabilities, income and expenses are recorded on the accrual basis of accounting. The company uses the same basis of accounting for income tax purposes.
- (b) Inventory is valued at cost.
- (c) Property, equipment and land are stated at cost except for $10,681 of office furniture and equipment for which a no cost basis has been maintained. This amount was derived from personal property tax statements. Accumulated depreciation was established to represent the difference between the stated and assessed values of $5,297. It is the policy of the company to provide for depreciation over the estimated useful lives of the assets using the straight-line method. The estimated lives range from 4 to 50 years. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. Renewals and betterments which extend the useful lives of assets are capitalized.
- (d) The California State Grange is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)8 of the Internal Revenue Code and 23701(g) of the California Revenue and Taxation Code. The organization has also filed exempt organization business income tax returns for net income of non-exempt activities.

LECTURER'S REPORT

Worthy State Master, State Officers and delegates to the 110th California State Grange Convention:

It is time to make my report to the delegate body of this convention. Since last convention I have attended many 50th anniversaries up and down the State. I also attended National convention in Spokane, Wash. last November. Many of us drove to Spokane at it was not that far away.

There was some very good talent entries at the National level. They have three categories they may perform in at National. Our talent from California did not score in the finals. We did come home with a few first place ribbons and others placed in art and photography as well. These were all returned to the winners following my return from Spokane.

I have spent a very busy year this last year. The year has slipped by fast. Many thanks go to the people who have helped me each year to set up my display room. To the photography judge from Hanford and to the art judges for their time to judge the '81 art and photography. My many thanks to the people who fill my chair on the session floor and make it possible for me to get work done in the Lecturer's display room.

The Lecturer's bulletins have been printed and mailed from the State office in Sacramento. I put the bulletin together and then mail them to the State office, where they are printed and mailed. My appreciation and thanks go to Pat Avila in the production office for a job well done. I have had very few complaints. To the other ladies in the office thanks for all their favors. This next year will see some concentrated efforts in finishing the Lecturer's appreciation Certificates now long overdue.

The Lecturer's Loan Library fund has had some activity this last year. Our bulletins have been used by a few out of State Lecturers as well as the library books. Due to the pinched finances of the State Grange I have purchased the Skit Writing Awards from the Lecturer's fund rather than not give any at all. I hope we may be able to continue giving the Grange Image Award from this fund as an insensitive for Granges to involve themselves with their communities. My congratulations to the Granges who have won this award.

In computing the Library account I found a deposit was listed last year and not added to the balance.

CREDENTIAL COMMITTEE REPORT

Worthy Master, Officers and Delegates of the California State Grange:

I wish to thank our Worthy Master for appointing me to chair the Credential Committee, which appointment I accepted with great honor, feeling it was an opportunity to serve our great State convention.

I would also like to thank my hard-working committee, most of whom had never served in this capacity before. Without their cooperation and endeavor the task would have been extremely difficult.

The State Grange headquarters' staff assembled the credential lists and made up all the badges, for which I wish to thank Marjorie Brown, Pat Avila, Pat Meece, Carol Marques and Diane Liepold.

I owe thanks to all the secretaries who sent in the credential cards so that this job could be accomplished with greater ease.

Respectfully and Fraternally submitted,

MEMBERSHIP REPORT 1982

Thank you Worthy Master, Honored Guests and Patrons:

This year I would like to reemphasize our Membership Program and encourage all Granges to utilize it. The "Welcome to the Grange" Program is easy to use, and is a simple way to let our friends and neighbors find out about, and join the finest organization in the country.

Our head count showed a loss in membership of 1,718, but I don't feel that is too significant as the California State Grange is still a strong active organization. We have 1,180 Patrons more now than we did this same time 10 years ago.

My major concern as we approach 1983 is our lack of participation in two areas. First the 1982 printing of our Roster showed 137 Subordinate Granges did not have a Membership Chairperson. Secondly this same Roster showed 193 Subordinate Granges did not have a Publicity Chairperson. At this point the only question I can pose is: Without someone in our Granges making the communities aware of our programs, and without an organized Membership Plan, how can we expect to expand the Order of Patrons of Husbandry? If we do not use every available media resource to promote the Grange, how can we expect the public to be aware of our program?

Every Grange that exists today is the result of careful planning, organization and application of foresight by competent leaders. The continued existence, growth and expansion of each Grange is largely dependent upon the quality and determination of the leadership.

Leaders may not always have 100% cooperation, but good leaders do "get the job done."

The leadership of every Grange must somehow motivate the membership to review their current Grange program, study local needs and plan future projects accordingly. Every Grange must have a purpose that is both interesting to the membership and attractive to non-members whose attention and support the Grange is seeking. When a Grange puts appropriate, well-organized plans into practice, it becomes far easier to convince those neighbors, friends relative and former members to join the Grange.

The National Grange has just finished organizing a new membership plan, and will be implementing it in the near future. They will be attempting to contact the Membership Chairperson of each Subordinate Grange, by using their data process and a list of Membership Chairpersons provided by the State Granges.

In an effort to encourage Membership Growth, the California State Grange will be implementing a Membership Contest, to begin October 25th.

After a new member is initiated and signs the Roll Book, the Secretary will mail the application to the State Grange Office. This will allow the Grange News to be mailed to that new member much faster than before, along with any other information the State Master deems appropriate.

The application will then go into a drawing. The first sponsoring name on the Recommended By line of the application, will be eligible to win one seat on a major tour. Beginning January 1, 1983 one drawing per quarter will be held.

The member who wins the drawing may elect to: 1. Accept the trip for one person (additional seats will have to be purchased), and 2. He may receive a cash award for $250.00.

At the end of the year (June 30, 1983), the California State Grange Secretary will tabulate the membership statistics. The Grange with the highest net growth, and the Grange with the highest percent of growth, will each receive a $500.00 check. This check is to be used for beautification of their hall, or if renting, is to be used for a scholarship at a school and student of their choice.

All officers, and employees of the California State Grange, and its affiliates will not be eligible for this contest. We are trying to locate sponsors and have an incentive contest for those people who are not eligible for this program.

I would like to wish all the Granges Good Luck in their Membership Programs, and if I may be of any assistance to you in the coming year, please feel free to contact me.

Worthy Master, this concludes my Membership Report.

Respectfully submitted,
Randal A. Lewis,
Membership Coordinator

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE REPORT1982

Worthy Master, Visiting Dignitaries, State Officers, Brothers and Sisters:

The Theme for 1981 was "Launching the Grange Into the 80's Through Woman Power, through the many activities of the CWA.

93 Grange CWA's donated $842.57 to the National Grange Foundation Fund for Deaf. 115 CWA's donated $2,158.10 to the State Grange Deaf Fund. Individual CWA's donated $698.90 to the Infant Hearing Foundation in Concord. The State CWA gave the IHAF $1,000.00, which was from the sale of Hearing Aid Batteries and Song Books.

Some CWA's donated to the Morgan Horse Fund to the total amount of $292.00, at this time. The State CWA gave $100.00 for his fund from the Jewelry Sales money.

We are still saving used eyeglasses for VOSH, Volunteer Optometric Service to Humanity, a National Project. These glasses are sent to a VOSH Doctor member in Oregon. The lens are given to a local Lion's Club.

151 CWA's gave $1,446.73 for the CARE project. This is to be used for Integrated Nutrition and Educational Centers in Haiti. The CARE slides were shown by many CWA's in California. These slides are still on loan for anyone that wishes. For every $1.00 contributed to CARE, ninety cents is used in the field.

In the National Grange Sewing Contest we again made our goal and had an increase in the sewing entries. Thanks to all who made a special effort to achieve this goal. California had a 3rd place winner at the National level of judging in Class D. Our first place sewing winner in Class D for 1981 contest went to Spokane and modeled her garment, thanks to all who sent in money to help defray Tammy's expenses.

In the National Grange Needlework contest for 1981 we had a 3rd place winner, Betty Wiginton of Berry Creek Grange.

In the National Grange Stuffed Toy contest Jill Ann Sawyer of Central Union Grange won 3rd. Any member that makes 50 or more toys will receive an award and any Grange making 100 or more toys will receive a Certificate. In 1981 we had 10 members earning an award and seven Granges earning Certificates. Let's hope these figures increase each year. We need many more toys, as we are a large state. This year we made over 3,000 toys.

In 1981 our contests at State Convention were very well received with many entries in each contest.

Don't forget to leave your bluebird packages in the CWA room before Friday and be sure your name and address is inside the package. The Women's Breakfast tickets are on sale for $5.00 and will be held at Casa Royale Motor Inn on Friday morning at 7 a.m.

In our Meals For Millions project 165 CWA's have given a total of $2,044.83 in 1982.

For our Special Projects we budgeted $100.00 each for Youth Speech Contest and Junior Grange Contest. We also awarded to the California Young Homemakers pen sets for their best two reporters in the State.

We gave one Bible to a newly organized Junior Grange. Each CWA is asked to give $1.00 toward this Bible Fund.

The Women's March money is to go to the Humboldt Student Emergency Fund and Mother's Milk Bank. We are hoping to have $1,000.00 for each.

For Patriotism this year members were asked to fly their American Flag, especially during Grange Week and on other holidays too.

CWA's were asked to mark their appliances and valuables with their license number. Also to take pictures of their antiques for insurance purposes.

Marinoff Insurance and Fairfield Polyfil are still sponsoring our Quilt Contest. We really appreciate their sponsorship. We have added another Division this year for crib quilts, quilted pictures, pillows, etc. We are very pleased with the response to this contest.

GBO again this year is sponsoring the Dehydration Contest and are giving a dehydrator to the first place winner and cash prizes for 2nd and third winners.

We are indeed fortunate to have Cotton, Inc. working with the State Grange for the 1983 Sewing Contest. Dorothy Kistler, of Cotton, Inc. was with us this morning at our Conference and gave us an enjoyable slide program.

Cotton Inc. will be offering lengths of Cotton yardage for the best three entries in each of the four classes of the contest. To qualify for this yardage you must use fabric that contains at least 60% cotton. Cotton is the number two agriculture crop grown in California and also grown in Kern County, so what better place to make this announcement, than at Bakersfield.

It is possible for the same person to win a prize from National as well as cotton yardage, if their entry is 1st, 2nd or 3rd place at the State level of judging.

The cotton garment 1st place winners will not be sent to National for judging, unless it is also 1st place in the all over State judging. All the rules of the National Grange sewing contest will apply such as use of Simplicity pattern. It is also necessary to include a label of the fiber content, as it must contain at least 60% cotton to qualify.

Chairmen it will be necessary for you to send ALL COTTON garments to the State for final judging, along with your first place winners.

It was very disappointing that there were not as many Recognition Notebooks sent in this year. WHY? It is a chose that we all agree, but necessary to know what goes on in the Subordinate and Pomona Granges.

It was encouraging to have 94 CWA's earn their Certificate or Seal of Merit for 1982. Each year we seen to have a small increase, let's keep it up Chairmen.

Notebook winner at the National level in 1981 for Pomona was Betty Swanson, Stanislaus Pomona, 7th place.

This year the Notebook winners at Subordinate level are 1st, Nancy Moramarca, Rainbow Valley Grange; 2nd, Fannie Glazier, Guenoc Grange and 3rd, Emily Byelland, Copper Mt. Grange.

Pomona winners are 1st, Betty Swanson, Stanislaus Pomona; 2nd, Naomi Fletcher, Sacramento Pomona; 3rd, Cora Darling, Sonoma Pomona.

The Regional Directors are also asked to make a Notebook and the winners are 1st, Christine Kearne, Region 8; 2nd, Elsie Espinola, Region 7; 3rd, Harriet Sawyer, Region 1.

We had more participation in this year's Golden Quill project and Mary Kimbrough, Airport Grange, was selected the winner.

A supply of Grange Cookbooks were brought here to the Convention. Granges are urged to take this opportunity to save the shipping charge. For every cookbook sold the Grange will earn $1.00. This is the time of year that cookbooks sell best, so pick up your cookbooks right away.

We hope all attending this Convention will stop by the CWA room, which is the Venus room, off the lobby, and see the display. This exhibit represents many hours of labor from all over California.

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to all Grangers in California for their support and encouragement during the past year.

Joy Beatie,
State CWA Director

DIRECTOR OF YOUTH ACTIVITIES REPORT—1982

Worthy State Master, State Officers, Brothers and Sisters All:

This past year has been one of trying times for our country and for the Grange as a whole. We have all read about the large number of people out of work, the record number of business failures. Yet through all of this, through the threats that we are entering a depression, the Grange Youth Program has grown and prospered this last year.

It has not been easy, inflation has taken its toll of our registration fes for the different conferences and camps, making it necessary to increase fees so that we could at least break even.

We started this past year with an experiment. We changed the format of the committee by doing away with the Regional Directors and having an Advisory Committee. This did save us about $800 in expenses this year, because we did not have a Regional Directors meeting. If we are to keep the same format or change back to the regional director concept, it will be decided in the next few months.

The Young Married and Singles Conference was the first major activity of the year. It was held in Sacramento and attendance was down from previous years. The Young Married and Singles program is the one area that we must improve in future years. Young Marrieds and Singles can do much to advance Grange work, and in making the Grange the family organization the Seven Founders envisioned.

The Easter Youth Conference was again held in San Luis Obispo, in conjunction with San Luis Obispo Grange and the California Polytechnic State University. We have a most remarkable relationship with the University. Again this year, as in the past, they have made every effort to meet our needs in supplying Banquet facilities, speakers, tours, and general support. The conference this year was an unqualified success. Attendance was up, and there was a large percentage of new Youth present. This year the cost of the conference was up, because we suffered a $500 loss the previous year. I am happy to report that this year we netted out to the plus by about $50.

Grange Camp was a unique experience this year. With an average registration of 107, it was also one of the largest camps in about 10 years. What made camp interesting was that there were 37 Junior Grangers, 45 Youth and the rest were adult advisors. A real nice mix and everyone worked and played together like one large family. We had Tom Gwin, Prince runner-up from the National Grange as our special guest. His presence was enjoyed by all. At the camp, because a smaller amount of the registration fee was spent on food and supplies, a profit was made that will help the Youth Fund in the coming year.

This year at the annual session, the Youth were privileged to be able to open the second day of the Grange in the Fourth Degree. An excellent job was done by Howard Brooke and the Opening Team. Thursday night other members of the Youth will exemplify the Fifth Degree of our Order under the direction of Lillian Booth. We are all looking forward to an excellent performance.

Other activities of the Youth here at Bakersfield session included two fund raising events. As you may or may not know, the Youth Committee relies on donations and monies earned from fund raising events to pay their expenses. We do not rely on the per-capita taxes paid by Subordinate Granges. For this reason, your help and support are vital.

The two events held at this Session are the Young Married and Singles Barbecue and the Youth Breakfast. The Barbecue was held for the second time this year and was a great success. The Youth Breakfast will be held Thursday morning at the Panama Grange Hall, and tickets are still available.

In closing, I would like to thank all of those individuals who have helped to promote the Youth program this past year. And I especially thank those who have donated their time and energy to making the Camps and conferences run smoothly and for providing a Grange learning experience to so many this past year. I would like to thank my wife, Lillian, who has taken on a lot of the work I could not do. Without her this job would never have been done.

A year ago, when Master Austin took office, we were asked to stay on until a replacement Director could be found. At the end of this Convention, we will be stepping down as Directors. Our Business is growing rapidly and requires much more of our time than it did three years ago.

We will continue to be Youth Supporters, because there is no better organization than the Grange. I feel privileged to have worked with such outstanding Young people the past three years. Thank you all for a wonderful three years.

William Booth,
State Youth Director

DIRECTOR OF JUNIOR GRANGES REPORT—1982

Worthy State Master, Distinguished Guests, State Officers, Brothers and Sisters:

There are 15 Junior Granges with 189 members this year. We gained one new Junior Grange in Lake County, North Shore.

The Juniors in our state have done quite a few charitable projects: San Marcos, Central Union, and Riverdale gave money to the Dogs for the Deaf program. San Marcos, Central Union, and Konocti have made items regularly for convalescent homes. Riverdale Juniors helped clean up their town for the Spring Festival. Several Junior Granges took stuffed toys from convention and distributed them to children's hospitals throughout the state.

All the Juniors in California have been busy making money for their Junior Granges. Some of the money making projects were: bake sales, dime-a-dip dinners, quilt sales, hamburger booths, white elephant sales, collecting and recycling old newspapers, and plant hanger sales.

Many of the Juniors have had fun projects, too. The San Marcos Juniors went to Disneyland, Loomis, Riverdale, and Konocti Juniors went skating. Others also went on fun trips. Several Junior Granges gave Christmas and other programs for their Subordinate and Pomona Granges.

All the Junior Granges installed their officers and three Junior Granges participated in the National Grange Merit Badge Program.

As you can see in the Junior exhibit room, several Junior Granges have participated in the National Grange Seed Art and Salt Dough Projects.

Riverdale Juniors entered nine creative writing stories. Riverdale Juniors also entered five record books. The Riverdale Junior Grange entered a record book which has been sent to the National Grange for judging.

There were forty-one Juniors at Grange Camp this year. We all had a great time with a lot of educational and fun projects.

Before Camp, I attended the Western States Regional Conference. I had a great time and learned a lot to pass on to the Junior Program here in California.

In closing, I want to thank everyone who helped with the Juniors and their projects this year.

I also want to thank everyone for their many, many prayers and concerns for my family and me this year in our time of misfortune.

Erin wants me to thank everyone for their prayers, cards, and gifts for her. They have all helped in her recovery.

We all need to work together to keep up the good work with the Juniors. I am hoping for many more Juniors and Junior Grangers in 1983.

Respectfully and fraternally,
Ann Larson,
California State Grange
Director of Junior Granges

The Conference version calls for ownership of 960 acres with a snap-back provision providing that any acreage leased beyond 960 acres would fall under the full cost formula for the entire acreage farmed. Residency was thrown out. The odds were significantly adverse to the Grange position, but the outcome marks success for the small farmer by increasing the cost and responsibility of the largest users of reclamation water and will foster conservation practices and prompt owners to put more farm land up for sale.

4. Timber Yield Tax

Following the adoption of Resolution C-11 "Timber Yield Tax Reallocation" in Visalia, the California State Grange gave testimony on behalf of its membership demanding that timber yield taxes be returned to the county of origin.

Working closely with the legislature, Assembly Bill 3296 was passed with Grange support returning timber yield tax receipts to the county of origin, although we did have to accept a 2-year phase in period. A success for Grange policy.

5. Can and Bottle Initiative

In keeping with National Grange policy adopted in 1980 to support legislation that would require a deposit on non-biodegradable beverage containers, the California State Grange sent petitions to Subordinate Masters, Pomona Masters, Legislative Chairmen, and Deputies to qualify the Can and Bottle Refund initiative for the November statewide ballot.

The California Legislature has failed for several years to pass a bill that addressed this problem so the initiative process with the help of the Grange has qualified a responsible statute for voter approval. The opposition is well heeled and we have experienced a vicious campaign. So let's get out and vote "YES" on Proposition 11 and put Grange policy on the books.

6. State Conservation Plan

The California State Grange has been named as a voting member to a Select Committee to develop a State Conservation Plan.

The Soil and Water Resources Conservation Act requires the Secretary of Agriculture to develop a national soil and water conservation program to serve as a master plan for future conservation efforts.

The Grange is serving with other agricultural organizations, Resource Conservation Districts, and the California Department of Conservation to reach a mutually acceptable position regarding future conservation practices which can be submitted for Federal grants.

REPORT OF THE LEGISLATIVE DIRECTOR*Worthy Master, State Officers, Brothers and Sisters:*

The legislative activities of the California State Grange continue to improve, giving better representation to Grange members. The issues to which the Grange addressed its effort remain diverse. The major issues undertaken by the Legislative Department include:

1. Victims Bill of Rights

Delegates to the 109th Annual Session adopted Resolution No. L-15 calling for the California State Grange to do all in its power to enact statutes like "Victims Bill of Rights". Your legislative department sent "Victims Bill of Rights" initiative petitions to all Pomona and Subordinate Masters and to the Deputies. The initiative qualified for the ballot was passed by the voters and upheld as constitutional by the California Supreme Court. In addition, our resolution was taken to National Grange where it was adopted and S.2420, the Omnibus Victims Protection Act has passed the Senate. This is truly an example of the Grange in action.

2. Senate Bill 200

The California State Grange in accordance with Resolution C-7 (Visalia), agreed to participate on the Board of Directors of "Farmers and Ranchers for a Fair Water Policy".

The specific purpose of this non-profit corporation was to encourage voters to vote "NO" on the referendum—Senate Bill 200. Proposition 9 was overwhelmingly defeated in a race that saw the California State Grange give its first donation to support a cause in an election.

3. Reclamation Reform

The California State Grange played a significant role in the final determination of the Reclamation Reform bill being considered by the Conference Committee in Congress. The National Grange polled State Granges to develop a policy that could be taken before Congress. The California State Grange submitted a detailed approach that called for owner and/or leased acreage up to 960 acres with residency, and a full cost formula.

become a member of the Alliance which is a statewide coalition of agricultural associations and individuals concerned about the continued safe and necessary use of crop protection chemicals. In support of Resolution A-6 adopted in 1980, the Grange donated $250 to the Alliance as seed money and has seen good results on behalf of our efforts.

8. Agriculture Vocational Education

California State Grange policy adopted in 1970, resolved that the California State Grange along with the National Grange, support the reestablishment of vocational agricultural programs within the state school systems. With the strong support of the California State Grange, a state bill SB 187 has been signed into law. David Austin, Master of the California State Grange, has accepted an invitation to serve on the Agricultural Vocational Educational Advisory Committee, in the California State Department of Education.

Grange membership is also being represented on the Future Farmers of America Foundation Board of Directors.

9. Utility Rate Increases

The California State Grange in response to an outcry by members to huge increases in PG & E rates played a very active role in an attempt to give consumers a greater voice in the rate setting process.

The Grange coordinated an eight county forum at Gold Trail Grange to explore solutions to PG & E rate hikes, testified before the Senate committee on Energy and Public Utilities, met with the Department of Consumer Affairs and actively lobbied the legislature and Governor's Office to no avail.

Fifty years ago the Grange vowed to make every effort to reduce power rates and we will continue to struggle to achieve this end by demanding increased consumer participation in the rate setting process.

10. Nuclear Freeze

Delegates to the National Grange's 115th Annual Meeting in November '81 passed a resolution in strong support of efforts leading to nuclear disarmament. The Grange delegates resolved that "the National Grange encourage the federal government to immediately initiate effective world arms reduction negotiations and a prohibition against further development and deployment of nuclear weapons."

Grange members throughout Northern California helped qualify the Nuclear Weapons Freeze initiative for the November 2 ballot by assuming responsibility for turning in the signed petitions to their respective county seats.

Once again, Grange policy can come to fruition by a "YES" vote on Proposition 12 in November.

Other areas in which the California State Grange Legislative Department has been active include:

The passage of the Inheritance Tax initiative on the June ballot,

Grange support of Assembly Bill 801 which would have established an Agricultural Land Preservation policy.

Prompting the National Grange to urge Congress to pass a Balanced Budget Amendment,

The support and passage of Legislation to halt the raid on the Agriculture Fund by requiring any loan to the State Government from the fund to be paid back in full with interest.

And the support and passage of the Thurman Agricultural Policy Act, which charges the State Legislature with encouraging a continuing sound and healthy agriculture in California.

Legislative Director

PUBLICITY BUILDER'S COMMITTEE—1982

Worthy Master, National Representatives, Brothers and Sisters:

1982 has been a trial year, to say the least. The Publicity Builder's Committee started with four new members being appointed in March, leaving myself for chairman, so we basically had to start from scratch. We met in July, mainly to help design the State Fair Booth and to outline activities for the Western Leaders Conference. Both events were a success. Judy Massabny, National Grange Public Relations Director, gave us all pointers on media approach and your committee will endeavor to utilize her valued information.

Program backed by the PBC included: Farm Medfly Center, Alliance For Food and Fiber, Visual Horizon and Farmers and Ranchers For A Water Policy.

Donations throughout the year totaled $3,490.70.

It is only with your generous contributions to the PBC fund that will enable us to carry on a program that will help expose the public to the Grange in the best possible means.

The PBC's goals for the coming year include developing Regional PBC positions, giving us an avenue to more effectively get publicity programs to you. but. in order for this to meet a January 1 target date, we must insist that Pomona Masters include their Publicity Chairman on their Officer's Roster list.

You will definitely see some type of educational publicity pamphlet coming your way. Our target date for assembly is June 1, 1983.

Your responses to our news release program have proven sufficient. but not quite successful. If you happen to see an article relating to the State or National Grange, clip it out, make a copy of it, and send it to the PBC at the State Grange office. Don't wait for Charlie to do it, because he is just as busy as the rest of us. Save a copy for yourself. It may help you out with the new contest.

The publicity release program will now see some type of incentive program, possibly as postage reimbursement such as send one in, get a stamp back to send the next one. This, too, is in the very near future. Another note here should be added about the press release program. Much discussion from various members and newspaper editors has occurred and the conclusion has been drawn to now address the releases to the editorial page's letters to the Editors. Please keep an eye out for them. Your Granges will be notified as to the effective date.

Another program is in the offing which will enable you, as Publicity Chairmen of your own Grange, to show the State Grange and your fellow members how you show off your own Grange. This is a contest, of sorts, with prizes to the winners. I'm sure you're all interested in this and complete details will be available in the January Grange News. The information will also be sent to the Publicity Chairmen directly after the roster lists are complete. No, we won't wait for the roster printing. So, Masters, make sure your Publicity Chairman is on the list !!!!!

I'd like to thank each and every Pomona Master for their Publicity Appointments. At last count, we were lacking only two of the 48 Pomona Publicity Chairmen. Let's make it 100 percent next year! And don't be afraid to volunteer for the job. It's not as hard as it sounds. Don't wait to be asked, the Master may not realize you'd like the job if you don't speak up.

Thanks also goes to the Publicity Chairmen who have been reporting regularly. I'd like to reward them all, and hope we can in the future. We have certificates of appreciation for those that have responded the most in the past two years and they are: Lake County Pomona, Kern County Pomona, Fresno-Madera Pomona and San Joaquin County Pomona.

Publicity is the foremost vehicle in which to deliver your message. Use it to the best of your advantage and you will soon harvest a multitude of members and volunteers.

Special thanks now go to John Welty. His efforts have kept your Committee functioning as a whole, and helped expose the Grange fully in the hottest spot in California, your State Capitol.

Thanks to Edwina Hood as Past Publicity Builders Committee Chairman.

Good luck to you all in the ensuing year.

DEAF ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE REPORT—1982*Worthy Master, State Officers, Patrons and Friends:*

Another year of Grange Deaf Activities Programs are coming to a close. There hasn't been much expansion of these programs through out the State. Those that were active continue to be active—So, let us add to this program.

I hope many of you will devise ways to publicize the Deaf Program in your Pomona, Subordinate and Junior Granges. There has been good response in areas where committees have been formed. Deaf activities need to be mentioned more than once a year for members to become involved. Please give this serious thought and thank you for that which has been done up to now.

Through Beulah Winter, our National Chairman, we have gotten some positive results for Grange action. In May when closed caption TV was to be eliminated letters and direct communications to the major TV stations were made.

The result was a telephone call to Beulah Winter, National Chairman from CBS. This direct contact we feel was the efforts of Grange action.

Many Grangers have a Deaf Activities chairman and this is great. But, many do not! I'm urging you to find an interesting person as soon as you can to fill this important and worthy program. In your National Grange Program Book there is a section on Grange Deaf Activity Programs.

A new Grange year is about to begin. Let's make Grange Deaf Programs Go! and Grow! Plan, Participate, Publicize and enjoy.

In closing I'll give you several ways you can promote the Deaf Activities Program:

- Display in your Public Library or Store Windows displays.
- Visit a class or school for the deaf.
- Invite a deaf person to your Grange.
- Sponsor or attend Sign Language classes.
- Place posters in halls, meeting places or public places.
- Hold a fund-raising project for one of the Deaf Activities Programs.
- Present a program on deafness.
- Set up a hearing clinic, Grange Hall.
- Present a program on hearing protection.
- Visit a facility that demonstrates Telecaption or any of your own ideas.

GRANGE NEWS REPORT

Chief:

I have learned there are certain very important rules to being a Grange News Editor. In fact, it can touch on your very survival. You don't reveal your sources. You don't argue with a polar bear. You keep your hands off Superman's cape and you don't mess around with the social news.

Worthy Master, Honorary Guests, Brothers and Sisters:

Each year at this time I'm faced with the same problem . . . What should I stand up here and say. This year, we have a new Editor-in-Chief, who has a reputation for fielding questions, so I passed the buck and asked him what I should talk about. "Talk about the computer," he said. "But that would make three years in a row," I answered. "A new level in boring even for me." Besides, about all I could say was that since your fiscal policy has us doing things the most economical way, which is not always the fastest, we are behind schedule. Those whose subscriptions are fouled up already know it, and the majority who get the paper as they should won't care

How about another idea. "Talk about some of the problems of the job," he said. O.K. Journalism is very rewarding, but it has one major drawback, all of your mistakes are right out there in black and white for all the world to see. As Dr. Rolfe Reinhart of Fountain Valley pointed out to us not long ago. Dr. Reinhart clipped and mailed us a collection of typo's along with the suggestion we fire our proofreader. Well, Dr. Reinhart, that person is no longer with us, he's returned to school to do post-graduate work in communications.

In interviewing job applicants, I have become convinced that many of our schools in the past have replaced the 3 R's with the 3 P's . . . Push 'em through, Pass 'em on, and pray they make it on the outside. So in the best traditions of "If you can's lick 'em, join 'em," we now proof using the rules of the new English . . . or Newspeak. Newspeak claims that if you know what is trying to be said, communication has been established and the goal accomplished. And Dr. Reinhart, if you're interested, I'll trade you lessons in newspeak for lessons in medsppeak, with the hope I can read and understand a diagnosis and prescription.

Finally, the Chief suggested I talk about "In The News." Now that, I said, can be a touchy subject. First of all, we have had people tell us they send material and it does not get printed. I can only answer that we print up to 200 words from each and every Grange report we receive. None are excluded, none thrown away, we have even instituted a mail log to check and make sure what goes into our computer comes back out. Now, being a monthly there can be as much as 6 weeks between the time a report is mailed off and when it gets into print, a very important fact to remember when announcing future events. Let's see, what else can I say. . . . Perhaps you could talk about the content of "In The News," he suggested. I looked at him aghast, then remembered he was new on the job. "Chief," I said . . . he likes to be called Chief."

Thank you,

J. D. Hartz

GRANGERS BUSINESS ORGANIZATION

By Edwin Koster, President

Officers and Members of the California State Grange:

Once again it is my duty to report to you relating to your Granger's Business Organization and reflect on activities since your last annual session.

For the first time in the history of the GBO the Board of Directors were elected from the eleven Regional Districts of the California State Grange, giving Grange members, on a statewide basis, an opportunity to participate in planning the future of your organization through policy decisions governing the staff responsible for the business administration. This is the original concept that was envisioned by George Sehlmeier, Master of the California State Grange and the Executive Committee when GBO was formed.

The new structure of the Grangers Business Organization, organized as a Non-Profit Mutual Benefit Corporation, was completed on January 22, 1982 with the seating of the newly elected Board of Directors chosen from the eleven Regional Districts.

The laws under which the GBO is now structured is the same statute that governs your California State Grange. The administrative functions are also similar; the State Master is your Executive officer; the President of the GBO in this instance is also the Executive officer who may delegate the day-to-day operation and control to another officer of the corporation. The Treasurer who is the chief financial officer is also controller and has been delegated this responsibility.

Since January your GBO staff has, in addition to paying off certificates received for redemption, been concentrating on contacting wholesalers and reducing overhead cost due to the lack of sales, a nationwide condition created by the deep recession.

The statewide program which we are promoting is in the embryo stage and needs your constant support. The staff has already put together an impressive list of wholesalers with whom the GBO calls on a regular basis for its members. Sales by purchase orders to vendors now represent about 40% of the total GBO business. Sales from the store itself represents only about 10%. The balance of the sales are made up in heavy warehouse and yard items, such as fencing materials. If the purchase orders on vendors is working in Sacramento, there is no reason why the program will not work in all of our major cities throughout the State. But, I also recognize that we do have problems in many of our outlying areas.

Your Board of Directors are constantly trying to extend its activities to better serve Grange members through your Non-Profit Mutual Benefit Corporation. The goal envisioned (service to Grange members statewide) has not been attained; however, some progress has been made. I will be the first to admit there are problems to attain the goal of serving all Grange members. But, I am also one who believes there are ways to get to where you want to go—and that is accomplished by thinking POSITIVELY, it will work.

I am reminded of what my Grandfather told me when I was a young lad, "Edwin, you can do anything you want to do—you can be what you want to be—just make up your mind and do it!" I somehow seem to remember that philosophy. The GBO program can be brought, in some manner, to every corner of California. All we (you and I) need to do is to make up our minds that it can be done, and with your help, it will be done! I want to quote George Sehlmeier, Master of the California State Grange from his annual address in 1934, when he said of the Grangers Business Organization "We ask your support and cooperation, because it is only with such support that the Business Organization can be made the success which we feel confident it will reach within the not too distant future." I cannot say it better.

The Subordinate Granges in California now own the Grangers Business Organization instead of the former Equity Certificate holders, who for the most part are no longer Grange members or who have passed away. We are now trying to locate many certificate holders for whom we have no current addresses. That the redemption of the Dividend and Equity certificates and the business trends of the GBO would be a very knotty problem was well understood by Paige Harper, GBO General Manager, who was a brilliant accountant. With the GBO petroleum program coming to an end, he foresaw the need for the Board to include Associate members to save the institution. He also knew that eventually the Board would have the problems of dealing with a very confusing process to honor its obligations to the Dividend and Equity certificate holders, the latter being the owners of the GBO assets. His untimely death spared him from this complicated and tedious process. Only one person on staff is capable of untangling this very time consuming job. It is a slow process which cannot be readily understood or appreciated. The certificates which have been surrendered have for the most part been paid. But, we have approximately 6,280 names of certificate holders for whom we have no current address, mainly because some of these certificates date to the 1940's, many have had address changes and some, I am sure, have passed away—that also means looking for heirs. Subordinate Secretaries and Grange members hopefully will be able to help. Many names who are entitled to be paid are listed by County and town at the GBO. In the near future the Controller will be mailing the Subordinate Secretaries a list of names for their county or town, and we hope they will take the time to fill in the correct address if known, or if the member is deceased, give us the name and address of the legal heir. We much rather pay our members and/or their heirs than the State of California a few years from now. You can help, please do so.

Have you envisioned that your Grangers Business Organization may be a good membership tool? The Board of Directors have established a markup in the cost of merchandise favoring a Grange member over an Associate member by a sufficient spread to encourage Grange membership. We do not expect this program to take hold until the Purchase Order program with wholesalers in the counties of California. That's the first priority. And this may be where it is appropriate to re-state the purchase order procedure again, because there is reason to believe it is not yet fully understood. Although it has been sent to the Secretaries, GBO Pomona Delegates, Agents and has been published in the Grange News, members are still experiencing difficulty with its use. With the toll free number (800-821-7181) the buying from wholesalers by purchase order is quite simple and it is worth repeating:

PURCHASE ORDER PROCEDURE

1. Wholesalers DO NOT accept payment from individuals.
2. When you go to a wholesale firm with whom we have credit, you should inform them you wish to purchase through the Grangers Business Organization Purchase Order program; show identification (your Grange Dues Receipt or National Travel Card) to verify you are a Grange member.
3. When you have selected your merchandise, the wholesaler will call the GBO 800 number (if he does not have it they may call "collect") for a Purchase Order number, and identify you by name, address, and advise us the amount of purchase.
4. The wholesaler may quote our customer the GBO cost.
5. The GBO markup is 12% over cost. When GBO receives invoice from the wholesaler, you will be billed at our cost, plus 12% markup, and 6% sales tax. (A copy of the wholesale invoice will be attached to the GBO billing for your verification).
6. Our TERMS are: payable within 30 days from invoice date. Our closing billing date is the 25th of each month. Interest of 1½% is added to Past Due accounts. This is an annual percentage rate of 18%.

VISA/MASTER CARD

If you should wish to use your Visa or Master Card, you should advise the wholesaler, so that when they call the GBO for a Purchase Order number they will know the EXACT amount of purchase, so it may be cleared thru Visa or Master Card. He should also be prepared to give us your Visa identification number and the expiration date.

The Visa or Master Card number should be written on the wholesaler's packing slip and invoice; also the expiration date should be indicated on the wholesale packing slip and invoice.

BE SURE THE NUMBER IS CORRECT AND INDICATE THE EXPIRATION DATE!

If you wish to make ALL your purchases through your Visa or Master Card, please advise GBO Controller in writing authorizing GBO to bill all your purchases through your Visa/Master Card.

If you are anticipating purchases which you feel you cannot pay within 30 days, inquire regarding a "special agreement" which can be made available by GBO Controller, Mary Wendt.

THE BUSINESS CLIMATE

The slow business climate throughout the land, we hope has reached bottom and will soon return to normal. The GBO loss in sales was no exception. Annual sales of up to 900 thousand slumped to just over $500,000 during last fiscal year. The last 6 months the overage monthly sales have been about $35,000, and if the present trend continues, the annual sales are expected to be less than last year. As a result the Board of Directors adopted a budget (a first for the GBO) $30,000 below the expenditures of last year. Most of the reductions were made in salaries and employee benefits. The regular staff has been reduced from 6 to 3 regular employees, and a one day per week part-time employee is shared with the California State Grange. One employee on an hourly basis has been retained for the last several months to assist with the time consuming details in connection with the redemption of Equity certificates, their retirement and cataloging the approximate 6,280 returned correspondence for lack of current addresses. We will continue to operate with a reduced staff until the recession eases and sales improve.

1983 ELECTIONS

Although the procedure for electing GBO Agents, Pomona Delegates (County) and Regional Directors was sent to all Subordinate Grange Secretaries in 1981, some Granges are still appointing their GBO Agents. Grange officers are elected, not appointed. The California State Grange and the Grangers Business Organization operates under the same California Non-Profit Mutual Benefit Corporation law. The GBO By-laws provide for election of the GBO Agents and unless elected cannot advance in the election process of the County or Pomona Delegates and Regional Directors, and by that election serve on the Board of Directors for a two year term.

CONCLUSION

We feel the movement buying for Grange members through the present structure in a cooperative effort should be gradually expanded, and should always be held on a sound basis. We will profit from our experiences of the past.

In my opinion, the present Non-Profit Mutual Benefit program if properly and conservatively managed will grow into a distribution agency which can serve Grange members in many ways.

The opportunity is before us to build up a strong central purchasing program which will save thousands of dollars to Grange members through collective purchasing. Every community in California, where agreements can be reached with not only wholesalers but retailers, can be benefitted by our united effort.

GRANGE INSURANCE ASSOCIATION

REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1981

TO THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE CALIFORNIA STATE GRANGE

Following is an extract of GIA's 1981 annual statement, compared with the same data for 1980:

| | 1981 | 1980 | 1981/1980 % Change |
|----------------------------|--------------|--------------|-----------------------|
| Assets | $88,950,057 | $80,205,295 | + 10.9% |
| Policyholders' Surplus | 20,974,589 | 22,075,912 | — 5.0% |
| Direct Premiums Written | 61,029,703 | 54,562,092 | + 11.9% |
| Investments and Other | | | |
| Income | 5,426,257 | 4,337,822 | + 25.1% |
| Underwriting Gain (Loss) | (5,733,069) | (6,026,646) | — 4.9% |
| Losses Incurred | 47,382,391 | 43,606,296 | + 8.7% |
| Loss Adjusting & Operating | | | |
| Expense | 22,124,164 | 18,857,168 | + 17.3% |

GIA's 11.9% premium growth in 1981 again outpaced that of the property and casualty insurance industry, which was 4.1%. While underwriting losses were incurred in 1981, a reduction from 1980's losses was achieved, as rate increases began to take effect in those lines of business, principally automobile, where losses have been persistent.

Policyholders surplus (the net worth of the Association) decreased 5% in 1981. These funds have been accumulated over the years to provide protection to policyholders in heavy loss years. While no dividends were paid to policyholders in 1981, over $19,000,000 has been returned in prior years from underwriting earnings.

Washington continues its number one position in insurance premiums, although the ratio declined slightly in 1981, as the effect of the merger with Grange Mutual Fire Insurance Company, Colorado, was reflected in insurance writings. Following is a summary of the percent of premiums derived for each of GIA's operating states:

| | % Premiums 1981 | % Premiums 1980 |
|------------|--------------------|--------------------|
| Washington | 57.5 | 59.8% |
| Oregon | 9.4 | 9.0 |
| Montana | .6 | .7 |
| Wyoming | 1.2 | 1.1 |
| Idaho | 3.3 | 3.3 |
| Nebraska | .2 | .1 |
| Colorado | 9.1 | 7.4 |
| California | 18.7 | 18.6 |

In mid 1981, $876,568 was paid to the policy/holder-members of Grange Mutual Fire Insurance Company, Colorado, representing the return of surplus of that company, accumulated over the years of its operations. The return averaged over $200 per member.

GIA followed industry trends in 1981, where rate increases have not kept pace with rising loss costs.

1981's loss from underwriting, $5.7 million, was almost entirely in automobile business. All other lines, in the aggregate, produced a gain. Auto losses, while declining in frequency (i.e., the number of losses per 100 insureds), continued to inflate in cost throughout the year, with the average loss 12.2% higher than in 1980. Losses were heaviest amongst youthful driver groups, farm and commercial trucks. General liability line, reflecting serious third-party injuries on insured premises, also showed an underwriting loss.

The continuing high interest rates throughout 1981 increased investment income during the year to $5.4 million, an increase of 25% over 1980. Maturities of older, lower interest rate bonds, plus newly generated investment funds, invested at current interest rates, fueled this increase, which is large part offset underwriting losses.

The first major expansion of our home office space since 1958 was completed in early 1982, and the old home office space is being remodeled, with completion scheduled to be September, 1982. A part of the new facility has been leased, and will be so used until required for GIA's own needs. It is expected that this new office facility will suffice for operations at least through GIA's 100th birthday in 1994, and probably through the rest of this century. GIA also maintains 24 branch claims offices, opening new offices in Fresno, California and Pueblo, Colorado during the past year.

Rocky Mountain Fire & Casualty Company, as with GIA and the rest of the property and casualty insurance business, incurred severe underwriting losses in 1981. As with GIA, rate increases and a more selective underwriting program, have been instituted to offset these losses.

RM's investment income increased also in 1981, and offset net underwriting loss. A small increase in net worth of the company was realized. 1981 completed the first full year of operations in California and Colorado, providing an outlet for GIA's agency force non-Grange business, as well as assuming GIA's share of automobile assigned risk and sub-standard property business. These later programs, structured by law in the various states, assign proportionately amongst all companies those individuals or properties which cannot be insured in the voluntary market.

California's 1982 operations, following underwriting losses in each of the past three years, produced a gain through August, 1982. As with other areas in which GIA operates, automobile results in California are markedly better than 1981, while property loss experience has deteriorated.

GIA thanks the officers and members of California State Grange for its continuing support. It is a pleasure to make this contribution to California State Grange in recognition of that support.

REPORT OF UKIAH AUTUMN LEAVES

Ukiah, California

A SENIOR CITIZEN HOUSING PROJECT

CONSISTING OF 92 UNITS

No. 121-44134-NP-WAH

Sponsored and Directed by California State Grange through a Board of Nine Directors

Managed and Operated by Barcelon & Associates Management Corp.
Lafayette, California

Worthy Master, State Officers, Brothers and Sisters and Guests:

Herewith is a short report of the activities of the management and Board of Directors of Ukiah Autumn Leaves for the past year.

With permission from H.U.D., we converted the Stage into an office for the Manager. The volume of work and the addition of a resident property manager had made the original office too small.

The Auditorium was repainted and the elevators had to have earth quake restraints installed to bring them up to new standards. The shower mixing valves started allowing hot water into the cold water supply and are being replaced. Also some refrigerators are failing after seven years. Drapes and rugs are also being replaced. The outside of the building has been repainted.

These and other predictable expenses made it necessary to petition H.U.D. for an increase in rent, which was granted, effective July 1, 1982.

A copy of the rent schedule is attached.

Respectfully submitted,
Otto Kaser, Board Member

NOTICE TO UKIAH AUTUMN LEAVES RESIDENTS OF APPROVED RENT INCREASE REQUEST

This will advise you that the Department of Housing and Urban Development have approved a request to increase the monthly rental rates at Ukiah Autumn Leaves Apartments, effective July 1, 1982, for the following reasons:

1. Increased operating costs
2. Increased maintenance costs
3. Increased utility costs

The approved rents are as follows:

| Unit Size | Present Rents | Utility | Approved Rents | Utility | | |
|-----------|---------------|-------------|----------------|-------------|--------|-------|
| | Basic | Mkt. Allow. | Basic | Mkt. Allow. | | |
| Studio | $151. | $210. | $15. | $160. | $230. | $26. |
| 1. Bdrm. | 166. | $246. | $21. | $185. | $266. | $37. |
| 2 bdrm. | $188. | $280. | $27. | $207. | $297. | $55 |

For those residents who are under the Housing Assistance Payments Program, (Section 8), and the Rental Assistance Program, (RAP), you will continue to pay the 25 percent of your adjusted monthly income. For those residents who are on the straight 236 Program, you will pay either the basic rent or 25 percent of your income, whichever is greater, but no higher than the approved market rents.

Since there has been an increase in the utility allowance, the Manager and her office staff will have to recalculate your rent payment. They will advise you in a separate notice of your new rent payment and at the same time ask you to come to the office to sign an amendment to your current lease.

ADDRESS OF JIM MILLER, ASSISTANT LEGISLATIVE DIRECTOR, THE NATIONAL GRANGE

It is with a sincere sense of pride and, yet, one of humility that I speak to you today. My pride stems from my good fortunate to represent this organization, the National Grange Patrons of Husbandry, before the California State Grange. However, this sense of humility is one that is due, in part, to the fact that this state is the paragon of agricultural achievement. California's agricultural strength is a result of the blessings of abundant and productive lands, talents, and dedication. Your climate and your people have brought the blessings of natural resources to their high level of productivity.

Perhaps I am humbled as much by the magnitude of my responsibility to report to you today on the activities of the Legislative Department of the National Grange office in Washington, D. C. The scope of the issues with which we deal is enormous, and I cannot hope to report on any in the detail that each deserves. So if I may, I would like to touch on several items that I believe would be of the most interest to the people of California.

Of course, the bulk of our attentions center on issues dealing directly with agriculture, and rural affairs. Undoubtedly, we are concerned with the profitability crisis confronting this number one industry. Almost daily we hear reports of farm families facing failure due to conditions plaguing the entire country. Our economy is in disarray. Some say depression; others say recession. Still more talk of transition, adjustment, or realignment. But none of these terms truly captures the tragedy that unemployment causes to families, to marriages, or to the hopes of young people just starting out in life. Perhaps even worse, are the side effects caused by ten percent unemployment — a feeling of cynicism and lack of confidence in the institutions from which we expect so much.

We are in the closing moments of an election that is aptly described as "off-year." One third of the U. S. Senate, all of the U. S. House of Representatives, thirty-six governors, and all but four state legislatures face the voters next month. Each has his or her own view on the economic turmoil before us. In each race, the economy is an issue. This concerted national attention to jobs and inflation has raised rhetoric and it has raised Cain. And in many instances it has raised campaign donations. But brothers and sisters, it has not raised hopes.

Our organization is committed to achieving balanced federal budgets. We are convinced that only with a balanced Federal budget can hopes for economic recovery be buoyed not only on Wall Street but on Main Street as well. It is faith in the institutions of government that will assure the weathering of this storm. It was this commitment to a balanced budget that led the National Grange to oppose President Reagan's proposal which led to the tax cuts passed by Congress last year. We felt that public pressure could achieve reduced federal spending, but the times called for immediate budget balancing to be followed by tax reductions in line with achieved, let me repeat, achieved spending reductions.

The Grange was fearful that unless the tax reductions were viewed as a reward for spending reductions. Congress would make the easy decision — cut taxes, and they would balk and skirt the tough ones—spending cuts. Some spending cuts were made, but increased unemployment and decreased purchasing quickly made a mockery of the income projections upon which the Administration's deficit estimates were based. We now face a federal budget deficit of $175 billion.

The Grange believes that a Constitutional Amendment requiring a balanced budget will be necessary to achieving economic vitality and hope for prosperity. The National Grange communicated this belief to Congress during consideration of the amendment. We suggested that the Amendment, although strengthened by the Armstrong/Boren provision requiring a three-fifth majority to permit deficit spending, would have been further strengthened by requiring the President to submit to Congress a proposed balanced budget thereby making the budget process a cooperative Congressional/Administration effort. And, we suggested that the amendment be changed to prohibit excessive shifting of financial responsibilities for certain programs from the federal government to the states.

Although the Amendment failed in the House of Representatives, we are confident that the proposal will be before Congress in the 98th Session which convenes this January. There will be many new faces in Washington next year, and that means that the Grange will have to step up our educational efforts on the Hill. We will be relying heavily on the cooperation of the State Granges, Pomona Granges and every Subordinate Grange to communicate this important message to our elected representatives.

As the general economy of the United States, and the entire world, regains its vitality — and we must believe that it will — the outlook for agriculture will brighten. We are faced with commodity prices for wheat and feed grains that have led many efficient and well-managed farms to the brink of failure. And indeed, many have fallen over that edge. We are losing our bright young farmers and ranchers before they have been given a real opportunity to prove their abilities. High interest rates are still with us even though we are encouraged by recent drops in the prime rate. When interest rates achieve normality and stability, farmers and ranchers will develop the means to meet the challenge of feeding a hungry world.

As an intermediate step toward lessening the pinch of low prices and high operating costs, of which debt financing is a part. The Grange heartily endorsed the Administration's announced 1983 feed grains program. In our opinion, the 10% set-aside and 10% paid diversion will enable many producers to get by. We worked hard to convince USDA Secretary Block of the wisdom of an aggressive program for feed grains in order to avoid further bankruptcies and higher drains on the treasury through deficiency payments on a bumper crop. This year's record corn crop is an indication that the incentives for participation were not strong enough in the 1982 program. The Grange is encouraged in the prospects that a smaller crop next year, coupled with an enlightened export policy, will result in better prices for fed grain producers and regained equilibrium in the general agricultural economy.

The National Grange was somewhat less enthusiastic in the announced 1983 Wheat program. The Grange urged Secretary Block to endorse a 25% Acreage Reduction Program, of which 10% would constitute a paid diversion. We were disappointed that the Program calls for only 15% reduction, 5% being paid diversion.

Both the feed grains and wheat programs incorporate a rather novel approach which the Grange endorsed. Farmers will receive one-half of the estimated deficiency payment, as well as one-half of the payment for acres diverted, at the time they enroll in the reduced acreage program. We feel that those provisions will have a two-fold beneficial effect: They will offer an increased incentive for farmers to participate, and they will give the farmer a much-needed infusion of cash for operating expenses.

The 1983 Upland Cotton program met with Grange approval. The program calls for a 20% set-aside program with a voluntary 5% paid diversion. The Grange had hoped for a mandatory 25% program along the lines of wheat and feed grains.

In general, we believe that wheat, feed grains, and cotton producers will benefit from the actions taken by Secretary Block in the past months. I must mention, however, that the Grange sees these reduced-planting programs as only a short term remedy. We are fearful that over-reliance on reduced planting to achieve profitability could result in a diminished share of foreign markets. Farmers must not be led into dependence on diversion payments—the long term answer to profit in wheat and feed grains and cotton must lie in exports. The Grange believes that enhanced trading in the world market can be accomplished only through American agriculture's ability to compete in the world market. We must continue to develop new foreign markets where our surpluses can be sold at profitable prices.

Increased foreign utilization is only part of the picture. The Grange is working with USDA and with Congress in attempts to eliminate trade barriers that stand in the way of competition. Produce and fruit grown in this state and elsewhere should and must be given access to willing foreign buyers. We are working to make it as easy to buy California oranges in Tokyo as it is to buy a Sony in Bakersfield. The frustration of American producers of agricultural commodities with Japan and the Common Market countries is growing daily. Congress is considering numerous proposals to slap tariffs on imports from these countries. Other proposals would call for U. S. subsidies on certain goods to force reduction in the sale of subsidized products by other countries. In fact, the Budget Reconciliation Act passed by Congress this year includes $175 to $190 million to meet foreign competition in agricultural commodities.

The Grange looks askance at efforts to "buy our way" into foreign markets. Some call it meeting fire with fire. We call it dangerous. We cannot allow a trade war to erupt. The entire world is in a financially precarious position, and the situation calls for deliberate and equitable steps to enhance trade on a mutually benefiting basis. Mutually benefiting. The United States' balance of trade with Japan should be strengthened by U. S. produce as Japan's is by industrial goods.

Similarly, the Grange has been a vocal opponent of the so-called Domestic Content bill pushed by the United Auto Workers and the AFL-CIO. While we have worked together with labor in many issues, we have taken the domestic content legislation as a direct threat to existing agricultural trade and a jeopardy to negotiated trade lines for the future. Briefly, as I am sure you understand, the domestic content bill would require imported cars to contain a content of American-built parts if the manufacturer sells over 100,000 units per year. The sliding scale that determines the percentage of local content could run as high as 90%. On the surface, the domestic content legislation does have some appeal. It is, however, the underlying problems that pose the danger to agriculture. Would it not be simpler to just quit buying cars not made in America? It would, and it would be more efficient in gaining the attention of the Japanese to address the inequities in their trading policies.

Let's turn our attention to another aspect of agricultural interest—marketing. The Grange has become increasingly concerned over administrative efforts to revise and even end our highly successful marketing order programs. I need not emphasize the importance that these marketing orders hold here in California and other parts of the nation. We were, frankly, shocked when the Director of the Office of Management and Budget squashed an attempt, approved by the Secretary of Agriculture, to allow Michigan Cherry growers to hold a portion of their bumper crop off the market for sale in a year when crops were less abundant. That decision, ladies and gentlemen, was made in complete ignorance of the contributions that marketing orders have made in price stability to producers and consumers. The genesis of the attacks on market orders stems from Vice President Bush's Task Force on Regulatory Relief. This task force was heralded by the Reagan Administration as a means of reducing the regulatory burden on small and large businesses and industry across the country. Clearly, an examination of regulatory bureaucracy is in order; few would argue that fact. However, the Grange expressed its disappointment that marketing orders were to be viewed in the same contempt by the Administration as were size standards on toilet seats. Fruit and vegetable marketing orders came in for some bad press last year when California and Arizona withheld off-grade oranges from the market. Some large growers used this criticism to their advantage and called for an end to the navel orange marketing orders. Later in 1981, the almond growers asked for a 25% set-aside, or placing in storage, of an abundant crop. It was eventually granted, but not without considerable pressure from growers, co-ops, and farm organizations. It was evident that 1982 would be the year of the assault on marketing orders. It happened.

The Grange expressed its outrage at OMB's decision on the Michigan cherry order, and it sent a letter of reply, OMB told the Grange that they recognize that marketing orders serve a useful and constructive purpose to both growers and consumers. They drew the line, however, at a marketing order's ability to, and I quote, "dictate how much of a commodity may be marketed, stored, or wasted." They went on to say, "The preferable strategy is to rely to the fullest extent possible upon natural market mechanisms to allocate commodities—this will insure that the result is efficient and will be in the overall best interests of the American economy, consumer and farmer. The absurdity of OMB's reasoning does not end there.

The Grange obtained a copy of a memo from OMB to the Agricultural marketing Service. In that letter regarding the hops marketing order, OMB charged that the hops marketing order "crossed the line between orderly marketing and restraint of trade." We must conclude this: The Grange must see to it that USDA regains control of marketing order decisions. We must also launch a concerted effort to educate this administration on the difference between profitability and restraint of trade. The family-sized producer must not allow his market share to be so arrogantly cast aside.

In the past eighteen months, my own responsibilities have centered on Congressional efforts to amend the Reclamation Act of 1902. I wish that I could stand before you today and claim victory for family agriculture. In fact, the law that was enacted will serve only the irrigators who were not in compliance with the original law, and it will subvert the future competitiveness of family agriculture in the irrigated areas of the West.

From a lobbyist's standpoint, let me say that it was extremely difficult to educate Congress on the intricacies of the Reclamation Act and its impact on agriculture. It was nearly impossible to maintain the attention of Congressmen from non-reclamation states on an issue which they felt did not affect them. The Grange was successful, however, in raising a certain level of awareness on the part of members by an effective letter-writing campaign. We found allies in Vermont, Ohio, Wisconsin, New York, Pennsylvania and other states as well. But our opponents on this bill, the spokesmen for "boardroom agriculture", were highly successful not only in maintaining nearly 100% unity among Western states, but they were successful in neutralizing non-West critics of the bills by alleging ignorance on their part because no reclamation projects were within their state boundaries. So instead of addressing the inequities of the bill as the critics charged, proponents of supsr-sized farming attacked the rights of non-Western Congressmen to address the subject at all. The short-sightedness of that attitude is appalling, but it worked.

But on a more positive note, let me offer this. I think the Grange was instrumental in alerting Congress to the fact that water is a precious commodity—and a highly valuable one. Certainly, the Political Action Committees' large contributions testify to the fact that some well-heeled interests were willing to pay a bundle to protect their irrigation supplies.

The bill at least imposes an ownership limitation of 960 acres. It also permits those limits to be adjusted for areas where the land is less productive than prime farm land. The residency requirement is gone for good—in fact, that was doomed from the outset. Corps of Engineers projects are given a blanket exclusion, regardless of the irrigation benefits that result. That exemption undoes numerous court decisions that took years to litigate, and in all but one case did the courts uphold the application of ownership limits in Corps project areas.

Where do we go from here? Water policy will grow in importance in the coming years. The California State Grange has been instrumental in shaping Grange water policies, and I hope and expect that you will continue to assist the National Grange in this matter. We need a concerted effort to structure our government's policy in such a manner as to integrate what is generally perceived to be two separate issues: agriculture policy and water. This dichotomy of views showed up by the virtual absense of U.S.D.A. activity on the Reclamation bill. I cannot speculate on the discussions that occurred within the Administration in this matter, but our efforts to involve Secretary Block in behalf of family farming were futile, to say the least. With your continued able assistance, the National Grange will continue to push for water development projects, in the West and throughout the country, that serve the interests of family agriculture.

I have also been deeply involved in other natural resource issues. Soil and water conservation have been active topics in the recent period. Wilderness, coal slurry, and public lands management have kept the attention of the National Grange as well. In all cases, National Grange policy is consistent. We are the Patrons of Husbandry and our natural resources policies reflect that concept of husbandry. We have urged that federal land managers, private utilities, and agricultural producers husband our resources by developing them in a wise and productive manner giving full attention to those generations that follow. Our land, air, water, and forests are ours for productive use. And they are ours for husbanding in order that our country can sustain itself for years to come. Always, however, we must examine our Grange policies in this regard. We live in times of change brought on by science and technology. Our policies must reflect developments in science and its technological applications. This is what makes the Grange's policy development so important and so challenging.

I commend the delegates here today for their efforts in helping direct state and National Grange legislature activities. But I must remind you too of the importance of following through. Any golf instructor will tell you that what you do with the golf club after the club meets the ball is just as important as that part of the swing preceeding it. It's the same with influencing legislation. Your Worthy State Master and Legislative Director will, I'm sure agree, admit that a letter from a concerned Granger or a resolution that is sent to a legislator makes our influence in Sacramento or in Washington go a lot further. Elected officials respect Grange spokesmen, but they need to hear from the voters within their district that the Grange is out there in the communities across the states and nation.

Writing a note to a legislator is incredibly influential. So is jotting down an opinion to the editor of your local paper. Statements of policy adopted by your Subordinate Grange or your Pomona Grange should be sent to the papers for their information and use. It's easier than you might think to get Grange news published. It's also immensely productive in influencing decision-makers. Try it if you haven't, and you'll find out how rewarding it can be. If you have trouble getting Grange news published, simply contact your State Grange publicity agent or call on the National office. They'll be able to offer some tips on how to get around that disinterested editor.

One more publicity item. The National Grange will provide your local radio station with a weekly radio spot called "Grange Point of View". It qualifies for public service broadcasting, therefore the station will not charge a fee to run it. For $12 per month, the station will be mailed a tape for their use. Individual Grange members, Subordinate, Pomona, or State Grange's would pay for the service, and chances are good that the local station would be pleased to receive it. Sample tapes are available for you to take to the station for their opinion, or Sister Judy Massabny, National Grange Information Director would be happy to contact the station directly for you. It's another case where a small investment will pay big dividends for Grange influence.

Jim Miller,

CONSERVATION COMMITTEE REPORT

Worthy Master, State Officers, Distinguished Guests, Delegates, Brothers and Sisters:

The members of the Conservation Committee having completed their assignment of work for the 110th Session of the California State Grange, sincerely thank you for having given us the pleasure of serving you.

This committee worked hard to arrive at their decisions and during their deliberations always kept the good of the Grange foremost in their thoughts. We wish to thank the many Grangers that helped us with their assistance and guidance.

Water remains to be a major issue in California. There is a need for a ground water and conservation management plan. Extensive research needs to be conducted to collect the essential information necessary to effect a solution. The Grange needs to establish a firm policy on these issues. It will

We have made recommendations to the Worthy State Master to appoint a committee to pursue these matters. It is our wish that an all out effort be put forth to accomplish these goals.

As chairman of this committee, I wish to thank the members for their time and effort they spent to reach our decisions.
